ICELANDERS ARE INVITED TO EDMONTON ALBERTA

Icelanders from North America and Iceland will be at the Largest Shopping and entertainment Mall in the World from May 1st through 4th in 2003. During this time the 84th Annual Convention of the Icelandic National League of North America and Iceland will be held at the World Famous West Edmonton Mall in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

The Icelandic Society of Edmonton invites you to come and enjoy:

- Displays of artifacts, the works of world recognized painters and sculptors.
- The work of bird carvers, spinning wheel crafters and caricatures of birds from stone and steel will be available for purchase.
- An evening tribute to Stephan G. Stephansson, the world renowned Icelandic Poet from Markerville, Alberta.
- Presentations on heritage, culture, genealogy methods and business opportunities.

The theme of our convention will be 'Unity and Communications in the Icelandic Communities.'

There will also be a Gala Evening including a Reception Dinner and Dance. We will have the distinct pleasure of enjoying the Icelandic musical group, Halla's Travels. One of the members of this group is Bjorn Thororddsen, a Renegade Rock player from California, and now a leading classical jazz guitar player..

General Admission includes the Convention Venues and Gala Night:

$120.00 Regular Fee ($100.00 if paid before March 1, 2003)

$ 90.00 Seniors Fee ($75.00 if paid before March 1, 2003) over 65

Gala Night Admission only $40.00 per ticket.

Tour the Canadian Rockies after the Convention with an Icelandic Host and see Jasper, Columbia Icefields, Lake Louise, Banff, Markerville and Calgary.
